NOTICE OF UNSCHEDULED VACANCY

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, pursuant to California Government Code § 54974, that an unscheduled vacancy exists for the following (term to expire 3/31/22):

PLANNING COMMISSION

The Planning Commission serves in an advisory capacity to the City Council on land use policy planning matters, which guide the future development of the City. The Planning Commission has final approval authority on certain cases and recommends action to the City Council on others. Areas of focus include:

- Conducting a detailed review of all types of development projects and individual land use requests, such as subdivision maps, specific plans, conditional use permits, planned developments, and appeals of administrative approvals, as well as others
- Assisting the Council in the formulation of policies and ordinances that implement the General Plan, such as amendments to the Zoning Code, the adoption of new code sections, changes to the existing zoning text and maps, etc

Meetings are held the second and fourth Tuesday of each month at City Hall. Members must reside within the geographic boundaries of the General Plan. The Committee falls within the guidelines of the Brown Act (California Government Code §54950, et seq.) and all meetings are open to the public. In addition, members are required to file Conflict of Interest Statements on an annual basis and attend ethics training every two years.

Applications are available at the City Clerk's Office, City Hall, 201 N. Broadway, by calling (760) 839-4617, or on the City's website www.escondido.org/boards-commissions-information.aspx. Please file your application no later than October 9, 2020.

I, Zack Beck, City Clerk of the City of Escondido, do hereby certify that I caused to be posted the foregoing Notice on Thursday, September 24, 2020, at 2:00 p.m. pursuant to the requirements of the California Government Code.

Zack Beck, City Clerk
