As your Councilman, I keep three priorities in focus:

Fiscal responsibility: I've worked with my colleagues to balance the city budget 6 consecutive years while creating significant budget reserves to prevent the kind of deficit spending budgets that plagued Escondido in the past.

Escondido has never been in better fiscal health.

Public Safety: We've established Escondido as one of the premier law enforcement cities in San Diego County. I've worked to increase staffing levels for both Police and Fire, hiring the best possible, and will continue to improve the excellent level of service you deserve.

I'm proud of our work to aggressively tackle blighted properties, fight gangs and graffiti and to beautify our community.

Efficient, Responsive Government: I've worked successfully to reduce the size of government, creating a more efficient workforce focused on customer service at City Hall. To effect this positive shift in culture we worked to attract highly talented new members of our city leadership team, starting from the top.

I'm proud of Escondido and optimistic about our future.

It's my honor to serve you, and my commitment to hear your concerns personally.

I'd be grateful to earn your vote again.

Sincerely,

Councilman Mike Morasco
