Thank you Councilman Morasco for bringing forth a topic for discussion that has been a point of concern for decades. Mr. Morasco, I am certain, will comment that this discussion has absolutely nothing to do with our Treasurer's performance who I believe has done an exemplary job seeking methods to reduce the city's expenses and protecting our financial interest. However, I do believe a discussion should also ensue regarding, as I commented to the Council a few months ago, the Mayor's compensation which as I stated is out of whack when compared with similar jurisdictions. A reduction of at least 20% would be appropriate. Both of these issues do not balance the budget but are steps in the right direction.
