Covid-19 changed everything—our personal and social lives, our economy, our government.

For Dara Czerwonka, this means Escondido needs a coordinated strategy, first, to protect the health and safety of our community and, second, to leverage public resources that address the economic burdens facing local businesses and working families.

As former three-term chair of the Palomar Health District Board, Dara brings unique, hands-on knowledge of how to ensure reliable community testing and emergency medical services. As a businesswoman, Dara's budgetary expertise is extraordinary. Her oversight helped stabilize Palomar Health District's $700 million budget while saving taxpayers $50 million.

Dara is further distinguished through leadership: 1) in programs that help young Latinas attain a college education and a job; 2) by providing counseling and job services to reduce gang activity; and 3) as a consistent advocate for smart housing development (including mobile home communities.)

Experienced, reliable, trustworthy. That defines Dara.

Dara's endorsements include Mayor McNamara, former mayor Jerry Harmon, and other civic leaders. She currently serves as Executive Vice-President of Non-profit Success Group, as trustee on a local school board, and as co-chair of the City of Escondido Committee on Health and Healthy Living.
