City of Escondido Historic Preservation Commission

How to Comment on Meeting Agenda Items

Due to the Coronavirus (COVID-19) public health emergency, the City of Escondido has made several changes to the Historic Preservation Commission meetings to protect the public's health and prevent the disease from spreading. Pursuant to Governor Newsom's Executive Orders, including N-25-20 and N-29-20: Certain Brown Act requirements for the holding of a public meeting have been temporarily suspended and members of the City of Escondido Planning Commission and staff will participate in this meeting via teleconference.

In the interest of reducing the spread of COVID-19, members of the public are encouraged to submit their agenda and non-agenda comments on-line. Council Chambers will be closed, no public allowed.

The screenshot shows a web form for submitting public comments. It includes a dropdown menu for 'Meeting type' with 'Please select...' as the current selection. Below this, it asks to 'Please fill out completely:' and lists three options: 'Please select...', 'Planning Commission', 'Zoning Administrator', and 'Historic Preservation Commission' (which is highlighted with a dashed border). Another 'Please fill out completely:' section contains a 'Meeting Date' field with 'Thursday, June 25, 2020', a 'Planning Case #' field with 'PHG19-0001', and a 'Subject' field with 'Downtown Specific Plan Amendment'. A final dropdown menu for 'Position' has 'Please select...' selected, with options 'In Favor', 'In Opposition' (highlighted with a dashed border), and 'No Position'.

Submit your public comment on-line

The most direct way to voice your opinion for upcoming Planning Commission meeting agenda items is through our on-line public comment form. You can start submitting on-line public comments when the agenda is posted, typically 10 days before the hearing. The on-line public comments are sent to the Historic Preservation Commissioners and the Director of Community Development for their review.

Public communication submitted on-line for non-agenda items will be read into the record at the Historic Preservation Commission Meeting. Public comments on agenda items will be available to view on-line after the meeting and the number of comments received on each agenda item will be stated during the meeting. All on-line public comments will be entered into the administrative record of the meeting.
