The Office of the Treasurer is meant to provide independent oversight of the City's investment funds. Transparency and accountability to the taxpayers of Escondido, not to the Mayor or the City Council, is the most important requirement of the job. Blaise Jackson will be the independent voice for taxpayer money that Escondido needs.

Blaise Jackson has lived in Escondido for 25 years. He has raised his family here and has served his community. He currently serves as President of the San Pasqual Union School District and has served on the board since 2007. He is a graduate of the University of San Diego and practiced law in San Diego since 1992.

Blaise wants to continue his service to his community and be your next Treasurer. He has the legal background and experience working with government agencies to keep the office of Treasurer moving forward and the common sense to invest our money safely. The City Council wanted to remove the Office of the Treasurer in 2014; we need a strong, independent voice to keep watch on our investments. Blaise Jackson will be that voice.

This November, vote Blaise Jackson for Escondido City Treasurer.
