It has been my honor to have served you on the Escondido City Council the past six years.

Working together, the Council has accomplished much: balanced budgets, an 18% reduction in crime (2016-2017), public employee pension reforms, implementation of our road maintenance program, outsourcing City services.

If re-elected, I'll continue working to improve the image and appearance of our City.

I'll continue working toward improving our infrastructure including parks, roads and our water/reclaimed water system.

I'll continue working on reducing regulations that are barriers to economic growth, business attraction and the creation of jobs for our residents.

I'm proud we maintain a balanced budget, with prudent reserves and I strongly support our public safety efforts.

I grew up in Escondido, attended school here, own a business here, and now my wife and I are raising our family here. I am devoted to Escondido and pledge to do everything I can to make Escondido the best place for everyone to live, work and play.
