We are blessed to live in Escondido! I am a licensed California attorney who has worked in education for fourteen years, and I own a small business in Escondido. My husband and I have been together for fourteen years.

I pledge to work with the community to grow businesses and keep our neighborhoods safe. My goal is to balance the budget, fight crime, create jobs, improve neighborhoods, and connect with my constituents. Investing in our infrastructure, businesses, libraries, and schools is essential.

A believer in helping people, I volunteered at Legal Aid Society, Family Justice Center, Special Olympics, Food Bank, and an orphanage in Sudan. I also translated for doctors and nurses providing medical care to the poor in Honduras. I speak Spanish, Farsi, and French and graduated from Auburn University and Thomas Jefferson School of Law.

As Vice-President of the Board of the FBI San Diego Citizens Academy Alumni Association, our mission is to provide a diverse voice to the FBI from the community. I am dedicated to public safety while promoting growth and fiscal responsibility.

Responsibility with the City of Escondido's finances is key by ensuring our money is spent in areas that keep our city safe, parks clean, and businesses flourishing.

It would be an honor to serve you. www.ingridraineynow.com
