

Jack Anderson

- ◆ Jack Anderson retired in 2007 as the Assistant City Manager for the City of Escondido. His local government career spanned 37 years with three Southern California Cities;

In his 27 years with the City of Escondido, he fulfilled various roles including:

Oversight of the Police and Fire Departments;

Oversight of the Community Services (Recreation, Parks and Library) and the Housing and Neighborhood Services Departments;

He served as the City's Chief Labor Negotiator for fifteen years working with seven employee labor groups;

He was directly involved with planning and implementing Proposition P in 2004, a successful $84.3 million public safety ballot measure providing for a Police and Fire Facility and four new fire stations;

He was involved with a variety of other major community projects; and
He is a trained mediator

- ◆ Family

Husband of Judi, a retired second grade teacher

Father of Todd an Advertising Art Director, and

Rebecca a Parks and Recreation Professional

- ◆ Involved in the Community

Grace Lutheran Church Board of Elders

Escondido Education COMPACT Board

Redwood Senior Homes and Services Governing Board

Board Member Escondido Library Endowment Foundation

Board Member, Be.Group, formerly Southern California Presbyterian Homes

Member and Past President Escondido Sunrise Rotary Club

Member of Independent Districting Commission for the City of Escondido

- ◆ Retired Captain, United States Naval Reserve