Survey Results of the 20 Community Development Housing, and Homeless Priorities Survey for 2020-2024 HUD Consolidated Plan

March 25, 2020

- In January and February 2020, City staff held four City hosted Consolidated Plan Community Outreach meetings and attend four community-hosted meetings
- A community survey was made available at these meetings, at City Hall, the Escondido Library, the Park Avenue Community Center, and on-line (in English and in Spanish)
- Multiple community needs were presented and respondents were asked to rank them by greatest need
- Seventy-four surveys were returned
- Responses were tallied and analyzed to determine highest identified priority needs
- Comments made at community meetings were used to determine the City's greatest needs for the Consolidated Plan, but are not included in these survey results

City of Escondido 2020-2024 Consolidated Plan Community Needs Survey

What are the housing and community development needs in your neighborhood? The City of Escondido's Consolidated Plan is updated every five years. It provides the federal government with a community profile, documents community needs, and outlines how the City will address those needs with Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) HOME Investment Program (HOME), and Emergency Solutions Grant (ESG) funding.

The City of Escondido will receive approximately $12,500,000 in federal grants from the Department of Housing and Urban Development for housing, homeless assistance and community development projects to benefit low-income households and communities over the next five years. As residents and stakeholders of the community, your voice is importa to us and we would like your input on how it should be invested. Please assist us by filling this survey. As you complete the survey, please consider the following: 1) The needs of yo neighborhood; and 2) how they can be improved. Your responses to the questions below inform the City's updated Consolidated Plan and help guide community investment for the next five years! Keep in mind that available funding is very limited and prioritizing your responses is of great importance. All survey responses are anonymous.

Encuesta de Necesidades Comunitarias del Plan Consolidado de la Ciudad de Escondido 2020-2024

¿Cuáles son las necesidades de desarrollo de viviendas y comunitarias en su vecindario? El Plan Consolidado de la Ciudad de Escondido se actualiza cada cinco años. Facilita al gobierno federal un perfil comunitario, documenta las necesidades comunitarias e indica cómo la ciudad tratará estas necesidades con los fondos de CDBG (programa de subvención sectorial para desarrollo comunitario por sus siglas en inglés), Programa de Sociedad de Inversión (HOME), y Soluciones de Emergencia (ESG).

La ciudad de Escondido recibirá aproximadamente $12,5000,000 de subvenciones federales del Departamento de Vivienda y Desarrollo Urbano para proyectos de vivienda, asistencia para personas sin hogar y desarrollo comunitario para beneficiar a los hogares y comunidades de bajos ingresos los próximos cinco años. Como residentes y partes involucradas de la comunidad, su voz es importante para nosotros y quisiéramos sus comentarios sobre cómo debe ser invertido. Por favor, ayúdenos llenando la siguiente encuesta. Al completar la encuesta, considere lo siguiente: 1) Las necesidades de su vecindario; y 2) cómo puede mejorarse. ¡Sus respuestas a las siguientes preguntas informarán al Plan Consolidado actualizado de la ciudad y ayudarán a guiar la inversión de la comunidad durante los próximos cinco años! Tenga en cuenta que la financiación disponible es muy limitada y priorizar sus respuestas es de gran importancia. Todas las respuestas de la encuesta son anónimas.
