I have made Escondido my home for 30 years. Attending Palomar College and CSU San Marcos, graduating Cum Laude with Bachelor Degrees in Criminal Justice and Sociology.

Partisan politics have divided our community more than uniting it. We need leaders who deliver, who are honest and problem solvers. I am not bound to a political party and will do what's right for the people of Escondido.

I will work to make government spending more transparent and accountable. Enhancing efficiency, access to local government, and guarding against wasteful spending of your tax dollars. I will work at restoring essential services such as; libraries, public safety, and recreation which will raise the quality of life for Escondido while providing services that the residents deserve and expect. This will in turn attract businesses and create jobs. Residents deserve a representative who listens, not one tied to special interests.

I am knowledgeable about the issues facing the City of Escondido and am not afraid to commit the time and effort to do what's best for Escondido.

Courage, integrity, and independence to protect residents - Nicole Downey, new generation, new ideas.

I'd be honored to have your vote.
