Escondido is the hidden jewel of North County. As your representative it would be my goal that Escondido would be small business friendly, a cultural and economic center for all of San Diego! Happily married 21 years, my family and I have made Escondido our home since 2000. I am a small business owner for 20 years, currently based in Escondido. Navy Veteran traveling the South Pacific and Australia, founding member of the Escondido Charitable Foundation, Kiwanis Board Member, involved in various community groups and humanitarian travels to Ethiopia with my church. In order to move Escondido forward we must be friendly and open to small business as well as large hi-tech firms. Escondido needs jobs! Making it easier for small and large businesses to relocate to Escondido will insure urban renewal, a stable economy and support core services. As a successful small business owner I know the needs of small business. Responsible leadership puts people first. Difficult situations require passion, determination and a belief that a leader is a servant and not to be served. I am a community servant, as your representative I will be of greater service to Our Escondido. How can I serve you?
